Date 27th February 1933.

This is to certify that I know Mr.N.V.Babu Reddy,B.A. He comes from Nagasandra, Goribidanoor Taluk. He belongs to the Vokkaligaru community. He comes from a well known family. His father pays an assessment of Rs.1000 per year. Mr. Babu Reddy worked in the Geological Department for about two years. There he won the approbation of all two superiors but unfortunately was thrownout on account of retrenchment. His is really a hard case. I strongly recommend his case for the sympathetic consideration of those that are in a position to help him.

Sd/- V. Venkatappa,

Dated 27th February 1933.

This is to certify that Mr.N.V.Babu Reddy comes of a well known Reddy family residing at Nagasandram,Goribidnur Taluk. His father pays an assessment of Rs.1000/- per year. His grand-father was a member of the Representative Assembly Member successively for 9 years. His uncle is a leading excise contractor and Ganja Cultivator. He was also a member of the Representative Assembly for six years, a Bench Magistrate and Vice President of the Goribidnur Municipality.

All the brothers of Mr.Babu Reddy are educated. The eldest is a graduate, was managing his extensive estate beside being the Honorary Secretary of S.V.N.Co-operative Society and Land Mortgage Bank. The second is a Law Graduate practising at Doddaballapur.

Mr.Babu Reddy is throughout a brilliant student. He graduated in the year 1929 with Geology and Botany as his his optionals. While he was studying for law at Madras he was appointed as Field Assistant in the Geological Department in the month of December on Rs.100/- per month. He was deputed to the Agricultural Department for 9 months for Soil Survey in the Irwin Canal Area, on Rs.100 20. As an appreciation of his work his case was recommended for an extension of 2 years in the grade Rs.100-10-150 with one increment from 15th February 1931. But unfortunately the retrenchment came in and he was thrown out.

I know that all the brothers tried several times for a Revenue Probationer's post with out success. It is really a pity that such a well known family has not met with any encouragement at the hands of the Government.

Recruitment of Police Probationers

FROM The Inspector General of Police in Mysore Bangalore

No. G2 C. 319 Dated 15. 11. 32 Received. 21. 11

Diary No. 2867/C | Enclos. 1 | Spare copies | Serial No. 1

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER

States that 8 probationers will have to be recruited for replacing the officers retiring during the course of the next 8 years.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The I. G of Police anticipates that 12 officers will have to be replaced during the course of the next 8 years on account of retirement & postings.

The basis of his calculation is —

1) that 6 officers will retire from service during the period (as per statement enclosed)

2) The two civil Service officers posted in

NOTES—First Sheet

in excess to the Police Dept will have to be replaced by the departmental officers.

3) The officers who will be promoted to the places of the officers retiring, will themselves retire from service during the period.

It is proposed to promote officers from the lower grade to 8 places and recruit probationers directly for 8 places in the proportion of 1 : 2.

This principle does not seem to have been approved of by you.

As regards the method of recruiting, the D. G of Police proposes to take two probationers in every alternate year for the next 8 years. This it is said admits of recruitment of officers in the intervening year if necessary & allows enough time for the training of the probationers.

The age of the probationers it is proposed, should be between 21 & 25 years.

The pay proposed for the probationers is Rs. 150/- per mensem. This pay is obviously due

C. B. may [illegible] further up[on] this point for the minimum fixed for the directly recruited A.S.P. and the probationers. The probationers on confirmation will get Rs 150/- and during his probationary period.

It is stated that the cost of the two probationers to be recruited in every alternate year will be Rs 3 600 a year calculating on the above mentioned pay.

Mr. N. K. Somappa & Mr. Mukhoji Rao Gandhia who were taken as police probationers were given a pay of Rs 80/- during their probationary period.

In the case of Messrs C. I. Mathew & B. Madanagopal Rajus, the question of pay did not rise as they were already in service when taken to the Police Dept.

Submitted for orders.

4) The file appointing police probationers in the last occasion may be put up.

1/12/32

The collections may be put up along with the file of Mr. Shapiro & others the C.B.

It is understood that the C.B. have given the file to the Under Secy direct.

2/12/32

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

WD 70—GBPM—60,000—13-8-31.

5) The I.G. P. proposes a scheme for recruitment of Police Probationers. He estimates that during the next years there will be 12 vacancies in the Gazetted rank, will be by recruitment, 2 are now filled up by Civil ervice officers in excess of the strength fixed for them n the Police. Three more A.S.Ps are stated to be equired for more efficient supervision. He proposes hat the proportion of direct recruitment to promotion rom the Inspectorate be fixed as 2 : 1.

6) In the reorganisation of August 1931 three A.S.Ps ere retrenched as being unncessary and the I.G.P. now roposes their revival on the ground that it is necessary o strengthen the supervision of the subordinate Police taff if Amildars' control is relaxed. But the Govt. id not accept the proposal of removing the Amildars' ontrol and he still continues to be the head of the aluk Police. It was only a year back these 3 posts ere abolished as being superfluous. The extra cost n the Police Budget on account of 3 A.S.Ps will be s. 7200/-. The financial effect of increasing the pay f the subordinate service in the department and their eorganisation has yet to be ascertained and it seems o be too early to sanction an increase in the cadre of azetted officers.

7) The proposal to fix the proportion of direct ecruitment to ~~proportion~~ promotion as 2 : 1 will be very hard on he subordinate police. Unless there is a good prospect f promotion there will not be much incentive for work. he I.G.P. had originally proposed the proportion of 1 : 2 but in his letter of Feb. 1932 changed it as 2 : 1. The scheme of direct recruitment of Sub Inspectors has been sanctioned. These will be young men and they should have a chance of rising to the post of A.S.P. at least. For a service of 269 officers 2 higher posts (one third of 7 A.S.Ps)will be too blighting a prospect.

8) In another letter dated 21st November 1932, the I.G.P. expects that the direct recruits will reach the D.S.P's post in 4 years. This will make it merely a parallel service to Civil Service. Instead of taking into the police those who are recruited to Civil Service we will be recruiting similar officers directly to police service. The I.G.P. condemns on one hand the system of posting the civil Service men as police officers and wants men with experience and specially trained for police work to be posted as D.S.Ps. This idea can hardly be attained by posting as D.S.Ps young men with hardly 4 years' experience of life and police work. It would be desirable to fix the proportion of direct recruitment to ~~proportion~~ promotion as ~~of~~ 1 : 2 so that Inspectors and Sub Inspectors will have a fair chance of rising to Gazetted rank and they will be men of good experience and ~~taking~~ training in the line. Thus one probationer for every 2 years may be sufficient. If necessary one may be recruited now and more recruited subsequently as occasion arises.

9) The I.G.P. states that the pay atpresent fixed for Police Probationers is 150. This does not seem to correct. Rs. 150 is the minimum pay of an A.S.P. rectly recruited, and a probationer gets this on nfirmation . The previous probationers were recruited Rs. 80/-.

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

WD 70—GBPM—60,000—13-8-31

19) Whether the Police department should be a close preserve of men entertained in that department as assumed in this proposal and should not include Amildars and Assistant Commissioners transferred from the Revenue Department, the manner in which Probationers should be recruited (i,e., whether by holding an open competetive examination or by nomination or by selection from suitable candidates) and the pay with which they should be started have also to be decided in a general order before this particular case could be sanctioned.

20) The proposal is of an avoidable character as on any day Amildars or Assistant Commissioners with Police Experience would be available for work as

as Superintendents of Police and it does not seem to be absolutely necessary to appoint raw men and train them up for filling up vacancies which will occur in the future.

Subject:—

Proposals for the recruitment of probationers in the Police Department.

The Inspector General of Police has, in his letter of the 15th November 1932, suggested a scheme of recruiting two probationers every alternate year to fill up the vacancies in the cadre of Assistant Superintendents of Police which will occur during the next 8 years and has proposed that two probationers may be recruite as soon as possible.

The Financial Secretary is of opinion that as the proposal involves extra cost it may be taken up for consideration at budget time. I think that on administrative grounds it is necessary that two probationers should be appointed for the Police Department and given the necessary training to replace a proportion of the officer who will shortly be retiring. (If two are selected now two more will be required only in 1935). The pay of the two officers may, as in the case of Revenue Probationers, be fixed at Rs.80. If selections are made and appointments ordered by end of February 193 the extra cost for the current year will be Rs.480 which can doubtless be met from savings in the Police Department. As regards procedure, applications may be invited from candidates who are University graduates and the Inspector General of Police may be asked to make a selection of four. The Government may select two of these.

These proposals have been agreed to by the Dewan and the First Member of Council, and I solicit His Highness' gracious sanction thereto.

From

F. A. HAMILTON, Esq., C.I.E.,
Inspector General of Police in Mysore,
BANGALORE.

To

R. RANGA RAO, Esqr., B.A., B.L.,
Offg: Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
BANGALORE.

I have the honour to append a list of gazetted officers who are due to retire during the next eight years. The number, including Mr. Seshagiri Rao, who is supernumerary, it will be seen is six. In addition to this number, it is probable that some at least of the officers promoted in their places will themselves retire within the stated period. It has also to be noted that the number of officers of the Revenue Department serving in this department is in excess of the figure hitherto fixed by two, so that provision has to be made for their replacement. In my letter No. C.C. 19/31-32 dated 27th February, 1932, I have suggested that the number of Assistant Superintendents should be increased by three so as to secure better supervision over the work of departmental subordinates.

In view of all these contingencies it may be assumed that 12 additional gazetted officers will be required during the next eight years if the department is to be properly officered. In making these calculations I have not taken into account the suggestion put forward in my letter No. C.C. 19/31-32 dated 27th February, 1932, to the effect that the practice of deputing officers of the Revenue Department to serve temporarily as police officers might be discontinued, allowing of the department having its own independent cadre of officers specially trained for the particular line of work to which they are allotted. As I have said, that step is necessary if an efficient police service is to be created. That apart, however, it is apparent that twelve additional officers will be needed in the next eight years. I have suggested in my letter No. C.C. 19/31-32 dated 27th February, 1932, already referred to above, that the proportion of directly recruited to promoted officers should be 2 : 1 and if this proposal is proposal is agreed to it will mean that 8 officers should be directly recruited in the period stated. That implies the direct recruitment of at least one officer yearly, but I would suggest the advisability of recruiting two officers in each alternate year, since eventualities cannot always be accurately foreseen and it is requisite to allow for possible additional recruitment in the intervening years, and since it must take some time before officers so recruited can be trained and made fit for their positions.

I, therefore, propose to Government that such a scheme be adopted to provide for the officering of the gazetted ranks of the department and suggest that two officers be recruited as soon as possible to meet the casualties which must occur very shortly and for which provision has to be made. Thereafter, such recruitment may be regulated by the actual needs of the department on the general basis of two officers in each alternate year.

I would add that it is advisable that of the officers recruited should be young and obtained while they are still tractable and receptive and would suggest that the age limit be fixed at over 21 and under 25 years.

The officers recruited should be treated as probationers for a period of two years as the limit before which they should be required to qualify themselves for their position, passing the required examinations and being tested as to their suitability for the department. It should, however, be open to Government to confirm an officer within the limit of two years should he be qualified and found suitable.

The pay at present fixed for police probationers is Rs. 150/-. The cost of two officers per annum would therefore be Rs. 3,600/-, a sum which should be provided annually in the budget.

This is the minimum pay of the direct recruited A.S.P. of the provincial. On the probation will get more

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE.

The proposals made for the gradual elimination of officers of the Civil Service temporarily in excess in the gazetted ranks of the department a matter which brings me to a proposal I have made in my letter No. C.C. 19/31-32 dated 27th February 1932 and have touched on in my letter No. G.2. C.319/32-33 dated 15th November 1932 namely the gradual elimination of all Civil Service Officers in the Department and their replacement by trained Police Officers, a matter which I believe and may appropriately deal with now that the question of the deputation of Civil Service Officers to the Department is in question. I believe I have dealt with the reasons for such a step in my letters Nos. C.C. 27/30-31 dated 17th March 1931 and C.C.19/31-32 dated 27th February 1932 and need not again advocate the measure. Should the scheme propounded in my letter No. G.2. C.319/32-33 dated 15th November 1932 be adopted, the regularisation of direct recruitment of gazetted officers will make it expedient to consider the future of those officers. Two years may be regarded as their term of training, theoretical and practical, and two additional years experience as Assistant Superintendents should render them fit for promotion to the rank of District Superintendent of Police. Should the direct recruitment of Assistant Superintendent of Police be introduced a maximum of four years may be regarded as the term at the end of which the elimination of Civil Service Officers may be commenced, though this statement does not take into consideration the fact that there are some and presumably, will be more Police Officers under training as Assistant Superintendents of Police, who within the limits of that term, fitted to hold charge of Districts. Such Officers may be counted on to replace Civil Service Officers who, under the proposals made above, will be in excess of theCivil Service Cadre.

Four years being taken as the period at whose termination the reduction of the cadre of Civil Service Officers in the Police may be commenced and since two Assistant Superintendents will be recruited annually if the proposals made in my letter No. G.2. C.319/32-33 dated 15th November 1932 are accepted with such allowance for additional recruitment as may be found necessary, one of the Assistant Superintendents so recruited may, I suggest, be recognized as marked to replace one of the Civil Service Officers attached to the department. Such a scheme would imply the reduction of the Civil Service cadre by one officer every second year but might be subject to the condition that any civil service officer serving in the Department might elect to remain in it permanently. It is probable that some officers would wish to so remain and in that case the normal rate of recruitment would not be greatly interfered with. If it were, the number of Assistant Superintendents directly recruited could be increased to suit the requirements of the Department.

I suggest to Government that the adoption of such a scheme is feasible and is also necessary if the Police Department is to be officered on the manner I have outlined in my letter Nos.C.C. 27/30-31 dated 17th March 1931 ~~dated 27th February~~ 1932 and C.C. 19/32-33 dated 27th February 1932, and on that account I have introduced the matter at a time when the officering of the department is under consideration. It may be thought that it is not necessary to plan for a comparatively remote future, yet I venture to observe that the adoption of a palliative to meet immediate necessities is inadequate in itself and will serve only a temporary purpose whereas the adoption of a scheme that will fit in ~~xxxxxx~~ with not only present needs but provide a basis on which plans will be founded seems to me to be logical and prudent. On this account, I have dealt with not only with the immediate but the future requirements of the Department, having in view its need for trained officers. It would, of course, be necessary to reduce the cadre of the Civil Service in proportion as the Police Department acquires its own officers but that would mean merely that recruitment to the former would decrease as the ranks of Gazetted Officers are filled. On the basis proposed the alteration in numbers would be gradually introduced and obviate any abrupt dislocation.
